

Pregnancy

The medical technology available today has removed most of the risks. The concern is pre-existing medical problems (diabetic), or complications. Most cases will be issued STD. For those cases where other medical conditions exist the underwriting will be tempered if this is not the first pregnancy. The applicant and APS will be the sources used. In most cases the APS will be requested if the overall medical history needs clarification.