

Impairment of Vision

Unless this is related to another disease, it is not a concern for underwriting. This could be related to Diabetes, Transient Ischemic Attack (TIA or small stroke), or Brain Tumours. The applicant will be able to explain the cause. Find out the details and include them on the application.